DRESS CODE AGREEMENT

Due: Friday 8 November 2019

The Education Directorate endorse school uniforms/colour code. Refer:
<https://www.education.act.gov.au/public-school-life/at-school/uniforms>

The wearing of school tops and school colour code builds a sense of community and belonging. It is a safety issue around the school as our students are easily identifiable. Appropriate clothing enables students to be sun smart, and safe in our practical subject areas.

The Lyneham High School Board has set a colour code based on maroon and blue. It also has standards of clothing allowed as outlined in the Information Booklet, and published at http://www.lynehamhs.act.edu.au/_data/assets/pdf_file/0003/454593/Acceptable_Clothing.pdf.

School polo tops and jumpers are available from the uniform shop. Students in special programs such as Band and SEAL also have specialist clothing that they are required to wear.

Before commencing at Lyneham High, all students are expected to sign an agreement indicating their commitment to wear the acceptable clothing required by the School Board.

Please complete the agreement below and return it to the school.
